Project Summary

A 2008 Lake Champlain Quadricentennial Legacy Grant from the LCBP/CVNHP supported the St. Albans Franco-American Heritage Festival in June 2009. Designated as a “Signature Event” by the Vermont Lake Champlain Quadricentennial Commission, the three-day festival celebrated the roots and sustinment of French Canadian history and culture in the U.S. and Quebec. The event included music, art, food and a visit from the replica canal schooner Lois McClure. The Quadricentennial Legacy Grant paid for performances by Michele Choinier, Benoit Bourque, and the Don Roy Trio. The grant also paid for rental of sound system equipment.
