Project Summary

Through a 2009 Champlain Quadricentennial Commemoration grant from the CVNHP/LCBP, the Essex County Historical Society originally proposed three deliverables through the project:

1. documentation of the 2009 Quadricentennial events through photographs;
2. properly archived photographs; and
3. a commemorative publication in a digital format.

The historical society developed a digital, online report for several reasons, including:

- reaching a larger audience and more students through digital access;
- reducing project costs;
- online publication potentially has a greater and more enduring presence; and
- more content can be added over time if others want to contribute Quad photographs and materials.
