Project Summary

Utilizing funds from a 2009 Champlain Quadricentennial Commemoration grant from the CVNHP/LCBP, the Town of Champlain, New York installed an interpretive panel at the Samuel de Champlain monument located at St. Mary's Church. This interpretive panel educates the public on the historical significance of this monument, which was the first statue dedicated to Samuel de Champlain in the United States and was dedicated on July 4, 1907.

The wayside is in both English and French
