

Champlain Valley National Heritage Partnership

2008 Implementation Grant

Indigenous Expressions: Winter Gathering

Project Summary

Through support from a 2008 Champlain Valley National Heritage Partnership Implementation Grant, participants from the Native American community came to ECHO on February 19-20, 2010 to share their culture with the general public. The event included displays of native attire, traditional singing and dancing, storytelling, drumming, atlatl demonstrations, folk art demonstrations, and frank panel discussions.
