Project Summary

A Quadricentennial Legacy Grant from the CVNHP/LCBP provided funding to the Town of Champlain, New York to archive the papers, photographs, minutes of meetings, and commemorative memorabilia pertaining to the 2009 New York Hudson-Fulton-Champlain Quadricentennial Commission and its commemorative activities and events. The collection, gathered by Dr. Celine Racine Paquette, Vice-Chair of the Hudson-Fulton-Champlain Quadricentennial Commission (2002-2009) will be permanently housed at the Samuel de Champlain History Center in Champlain, New York.

The project resulted in the organization of information pertaining to the communication and activities of the Hudson-Fulton-Champlain Quadricentennial Commission and the Vermont Lake Champlain Quadricentennial Commission and made accessible to the general public.
